THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

March 19, 1982

2 W.

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am working on that memo we talked about and will get it to you at the earliest opportunity.

In the meanwhile, here are a couple of the President's speeches I thought you might like to see.

I am sorry I missed you at the St. Patrick's Day lunch. The President called me a couple of times that afternoon while we were working on the speech. He said it was the best Danny Boy he ever heard -- I told him that was obvious from the way he was tearing up during the performance.

I remain eternally grateful to you for the chance to serve this man and my country.

Best regards,

Anthony R. Dolan Chief Speechwriter and Special Assistant to the President
